

As Hurricane Katrina survivors rebuild, we're helping them reconnect.

T-Mobile is offering a free Nokia 6010 handset and 410 prepaid minutes to new customers who qualify for the Hurricane Katrina Lifeline Program.

Special offers also exist for current T-Mobile customers who qualify for this program.

Ask a T-Mobile representative for details.

Nokia 6010

T-Mobile®

Offer available solely through March 1, 2006 and solely at participating T-Mobile store locations. Depending on phone supplies on hand, T-Mobile reserves right to substitute different phone models. Qualifications for Hurricane Katrina Lifeline Program include (among others) residency in a Federal Emergency Management Agency-designated county in Alabama, Louisiana or Mississippi, as explained more fully at www.fcc.gov/cgb/consumerfacts/. Prepaid service expires upon earlier of completion of use of 410 minutes of service (and/or equivalent value of data transmissions and/or product purchases) or 90 days after service activation (extendable to one-year if sufficient refill minutes purchased to attain Gold Rewards status). Visit a participating T-Mobile store for domestic and international calling/data rates, T-Mobile prepaid program information/rules/restrictions and other Lifeline Program details. T-Mobile is a federally registered trademark of Deutsche Telekom AG. ©2006 T-Mobile USA, Inc.